

40 Year Chronology of Key Events

Helpmate organized in Seekonk and began operations out of the Seekonk Alliance Church.
1970

Helpmate moves into a small house owned by the Town at 396 Newman Avenue in Seekonk.
1971

Rehoboth Problem Solving Center established at 366 Winthrop Street, Rehoboth. Marge Johnson, Director.
1972

Phil Shea replaces Nancy Caracciolo as Helpmate Director.
1975

Paul Roud replaces Marge Johnson as Director of Rehoboth Problem Solving Center.
1975

Central City Community Center was established in Taunton. Kate May is its first Director.
1975

Central City purchases site at 19 Cedar Street, Taunton. Jim Isidorio becomes Director.
1977

Helpmate in Seekonk, Rehoboth Problem Solving Center and Berkley-Dighton Community Center merge to create Anawan Associates.
1981

Anawan Associates becomes licensed as a mental health clinic. Partnership Clinic Agreement signed with DMH.
1982

Anawan Associates merges with Central City in Taunton to form Community Counseling of Bristol County with offices in Taunton and Rehoboth.
1988

Day Treatment Program launched at 19 Cedar Street, Taunton.
1990

High Street Taunton office opens to support growing Children's program.
1990

Emergency Psychiatry Services established to provide 24 hour emergency services.
1991

Partial Hospitalization Program opened at Cedar Street.
1994

CCBC becomes an affiliate of Morton Hospital and Medical Center to improve the delivery of medical and behavioral healthcare services.
1994

CCBC expands outpatient services to 68 Church Green in Taunton.
1996

CCBC starts Community Support Program under contract with Medicaid managed behavioral health providers.
1997

Robert Smith House opened to provide treatment and housing for men in early recovery from addiction.
1998

CCBC and the Greater Taunton Council on Alcoholism merged to improve care for those with addictive disorders.
2000

Bridge House opened with support from fed. Dept. of Housing and Urban Dev. to provide housing to those with psychiatric disabilities who are homeless.
2001

Family Stabilization Program started (now In-Home Therapy).
2002

DMH awarded CCBC the first PACT (Program for Assertive Community Treatment) contract in SE Massachusetts.
2003

CCBC consolidated its previous program sites into our new location at Mill River Place.
2005

CCBC's Attleboro clinic became fully operational with outpatient and partial hospital services at the site.
2005

To increase affordable housing in the community and support growth, CCBC forms: CCBC Housing Dev. Corp. and CCBC Properties, Inc.
2006

CCBC received an Award from DMH Commissioner in recognition of the care and treatment of evacuees of Hurricane Katrina who were relocated to Otis Airforce Base.
2006

Executive Office of Elder Affairs awarded CCBC the Elder Mobile Treatment Team contract.
2007

CCBC awarded contract to develop Recovery Learning Community in SE Mass to provide clients support from peers with lived experience with mental illness and recovery.
2008

DMH awarded the Community Based Flexible Support contracts to CCBC for both the Taunton and Attleboro communities.
2009

CCBC awarded the Community Service Agency contract for Attleboro/ Taunton as part of the state's Children's Behavioral Health Initiative.
2009

2010
Community Counseling of Bristol County celebrates 40 Years of Service.

